We would like to extend our warmest welcome to you!

We hope to introduce you to authentic Cantonese, Szechuan and Hunan cuisine. Cantonese usually served with a thin gravy which emphasizes the natural flavor of the food. Szechuan food, famous for its hot sauces, provides a contrast of textures and usually cooked with nuts and various types of vegetables. Hunan is similar to Szechuan style, however, sauces are richer, thicker and with bean paste.

For your convenience, we use a red pepper to indicate the spicy dishes. If your favorite dishes are not be listed here, please describe your desire to us, and we will be glad to have our experienced chefs prepare it for you.

If for any reason you can not eat certain ingredients such as cornstarch, M.S.G, oil, salt, sugar or have other food allergies, please let our staff know so we can assist to your needs. We are most honored to welcome you to our establishment and we take your comments and criticisms.
